Miss Elizabeth Grant of the Lacombe teaching staff spent the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Walsh.

Miss Evelyn Havens who is attending the Olds' Agricultural School, spent the week-end at the home of her father.

The weather held fair and mild for the chicken supper put on by the Madden Ladies' Club last Friday evening, hence a very large attendance. Following the delicious supper a short entertainment was enjoyed by all. The program consisted of—a song—Laura and Jean Liddle; recitation—Wilfred Simmons; song—Mr. H. V. Ellison; stump speech—Mr. H. R. Fitzpatrick; song—Ellen Rach; recitation—Mr. H. V. Ellison; song—Mr. Brown. The draw for the quilt and tablecloth were then made. The lucky winner of the quilt was Mr. E. S. Knechtel, Calgary, and Mrs. Ivan Vance, Madden, won the tablecloth. The rest of the evening was spent dancing.

Some folks from Calgary seen at the chicken supper were: Miss E. Johnson, Miss Eugene Havens, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Befus, Miss Buddy Baird, Miss Ane Askow, Miss Margaret Sibbald, Miss Ellen Rach, Miss Leida Moro, Pte. Allan Priest, Mrs. J. Carter.

Miss Hazle Havens spent the week-end at home.

Mission Band Visits Olds

On October 19, the Mission Band attended the Mission Band Rally held at Olds.

The Rally opened with get acquainted games, which created much fun and laughter. Mrs. Boorman then led the devotional period, after which Mrs. Ken McEwen explained Thanksgiving and told an appropriate story. Miss Carroll, who is the Dominion Secretary, told the children all about Mission Bands in Canada and overseas. Miss Carroll has spent twelve years in China and she brought an inspiring message from her Mission Band there. She closed the meeting by singing in Chinese one of the Mission Band hymns, "Jesus Bids Us Shine".

They were then shown some lantern slides of India and played some more games.

The Olds ladies served a hearty lunch of sandwiches, cake and hot cocoa. All returned home tired but a happy band.

The Mission Band wish to extend a hearty vote of thanks to all who made this trip possible.

American Red Cross & Harvard to Set Up War Hospital in England

Plans to establish a 100-bed hospital in England for the study and treatment of communicable diseases under war-time conditions have been announced by the American Red Cross and Harvard University.

The purpose of this joint undertaking, in addition to fulfilling an urgent need in England, will be able to acquire valuable information relating both to the control of epidemics under unusual conditions and to organization of temporary, mobile hospitals under wartime conditions. This information would be of value in the event of defense or other emergencies similar to the influenza pandemic of 1918, when thousands died.

In the co-operative project for hospital assistance, the Red Cross will undertake to furnish the structure and equipment of temporary or hut type of hospital, to be fabricated in this country, transported to England, and set up there on foundations set up by the British Minister of Health. It will undertake to furnish the nursing and non-professional members of the staff and certain supplies for its operation.

Aside from the importance of information obtained from the point of view of national defense, such data would have broad value under conditions of natural disaster or any other event which causes broad displacement and shifts in population.

FOUR ROOMS IN ONE

The following item of local interest was taken from the Black Diamond Mirror.

"We have always been taught to believe that two and two made four but imagine our surprise when we drifted into Becker's carpenter shop in Little Chicago and it proved to us that one equals four.

"Sitting talking to Mr. Becker in his living quarters, we were struck by what seemed to be some nice panelling work on the walls; when imagine our surprise, Mr. Becker went over to the wall and lowered a section of the panelling revealing a cupboard built into the wall, the door of the cupboard upon being let down became a table, smaller panelling on either side of the cupboard were transformed into seats, the whole forming as neat a breakfast nook as you'd ever wish to see.

"But that wasn't all. Across the room was an extra large panel, so folding up the table and seats, our host proceeded to show us something else. He pulled out the large panel which turned out to be a folding partition and it was revealed that it had hidden a bed that folded up into the wall. When the bed was let down, the panelling was unfolded and the room became two rooms. Thus the one room had been made to serve as kitchen, dining room, bed room and sitting room. And we were told by Mr. Becker, he had lots more ideas, and when he had time to finish the folding kitchen and dressing room, we would really see something.

We would urge all ladies to have a look at Mr. Becker's achievement it shows just what can be done in changing a one roomed shack into a big cottage and we are told the cost isn't too excessive."

HOATH - JEROME

A quiet wedding was held in the Crossfield United Church on Monday morning, October 28th, when Isabel Elsie Jerome, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Jerome of Big Prairie, was united in marriage to Frederick John Hoath, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. R. Hoath of Armstrong, B.C. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. H. V. Ellison.

The bride was beautifully attired in a white satin gown, with silk net veil, and carried a bouquet of roses. She entered the church on the arm of her father, to the strains of the wedding march played by Mrs. E. W. Hoover. She was attended by Miss Jeanette Regnier of Crossfield, who wore a pretty gown of blue taffeta with a shoulder veil of silk net. Mr. Fred Sackett of Crossfield was best man.

The bride has for several years worked with Mrs. George Jones, and the groom has been employed this summer at the farm of Mr. W. W. Stafford. The happy couple will reside near Vernon, B.C.

LEGION WILL CARRY ON.

"Day in and day out, over the years, the branch of The Canadian Legion continues to do its good work. Hundreds upon hundreds of dollars are steadily poured into channels of assistance, in charitable endeavor that is too little appreciated by the townspeople as a whole. Such assistance as is given is rarely spectacular. Certainly there is no public fanfare about it, and perhaps that is the chief reason why the extent of what is being done is not generally understood. How ever, there is one group who realize fully the value of the local branch, and it is a constantly expanding group. In it are those individuals, in need of help whose lives have been made fuller and richer in token of the Legion's sympathy. If you are in doubt regarding the place that this organization takes in the hearts of such people—just ask one of them, who has received one of the many benefits conferred.

To the question "Will the Legion conduct its Poppy Campaign as usual this year", the answer is an emphatic "YES". In the midst of war activities The Legion will continue to serve the ideals for which it exists. As is now well-known, the Poppy Campaign provides an opportunity to do something to benefit the families of needy ex-service men, no less than the men themselves.

SOMEWHERE IN FRANCE AND HERE IN CANADA

By B. Leslie Emalle

The talk had been of hardships endured by Canadian farmers, when a member of the group drew from his pocket a letter and read it aloud. It was written by the relative of one well-known to all present and unfolded a tale of suffering indeed, how once peaceful homes in France were menaced first by the descent of frantic, famishing refugees and then despoiled and defiled by the army of invasion. It told of a flight southward, miles of trudging without respite except when taking cover in ditches to escape bombs and bullets from the skies, then of the discovery that the enemy barred the way ahead and of having to retrace those weary steps toward what had once been home. But the enemy had been there. What could not be carried away was smashed. Gone were all the trinkets and the treasures of generations. Sadder still, gone was freedom. There remained only the instinct and quest for food. That, said the reader folding the letter, might cause the Canadians to consider the inestimable value of liberty which is worth some sacrifice to retain.

Household Hints

What tastes better one cold evening than a dish of steamed spice pudding for dessert? I can't think of a suitable answer and don't believe you can either. So here's a recipe for just that kind of pudding:

Steamed Spice Pudding

2 cups sifted flour; 2 teaspoons baking powder; 1-4 teaspoon soda; 1 teaspoon salt; 1-2 teaspoon ginger; 1-2 teaspoon nutmeg; 1-2 cinnamon; 1-2 teaspoon cloves 1-2 teaspoon allspice; 4 tablespoons butter or shortening; 1-2 cup brown sugar, firmly packed; 1 egg, well beaten; 3-4 cup milk; 1-2 cup molasses.
Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder, soda, salt, and spices, and sift together three times. Cream butter, add sugar gradually creaming thoroughly. Beat in egg. Add flour alternately with milk and molasses, stirring well after each addition. Turn into greased molds filling them 2-3 full; cover tightly and steam 2 hours. Serve with your favorite sauce. Serves 10.

Lemon Mincemeat

(Makes 1 quart—Filling for 2 pies)

1-2 cup lemon juice
1 cup raisins, scalded, drained and chopped
3 cups finely chopped apple
1-2 cup chopped nuts
1-4 cup candied orange peel, or orange marmalade
2 cups sugar
1-2 teaspoon salt
2 teaspoons cinnamon
1 teaspoon each cloves, & ginger
Combine ingredients and seal in sterilized jars or make into pies, adding 1-4 cup melted butter to each pie.

Chopped beets, onion and celery combined and seasoned with mayonnaise, make a tasty salad.

Keep a large shaker containing six parts of salt to one part pepper on the shelf of your kitchen range to use in seasoning foods.

To be a better buyer of canned foods, read the labels. They give information that is helpful.

The World of Wheat

By H. G. L. Strange

"There'll always be an England", we fervently sing, as we watch with breathless admiration the unyielding Londoners resisting the Nazis' ruthless daily bombings.

But it will take more than the singing and admiration and the British courage to preserve England; it will take greatly increased quantities of that wheat and sopper, lead and nickel, of those tanks and aeroplanes, guns and shells which England now is buying from Canada and paying for in Canadian dollars. England badly needs more of these munitions, and would buy more if she had more Canadian dollars, but her supply of Canadian dollars is curtailed because we in Canada do not buy more British goods. (Canada buys from Britain each year only one third as much as Britain buys from us.) Our purchases of British goods, however, too are curtailed, because of Canadian tariffs, custom duties and other restrictions set up by Canada against the importation of British goods into this country.

Britain now stands desolate, almost alone, as a defender of Canada's and the World's freedom and others can give. Let us therefore sweep away these tariffs, duties and other restrictions that now hamper Britain's war efforts; and there will be a better chance of the song coming true. There'll always be an England.

Following factors have tended to raise price: Total wheat out-turn in Spain is estimated to be well below average—Greece has made arrangements to purchase 100,000 tons of wheat from Russia—Wheat production in North Africa is estimated at 20% less than last year—Ireland recently purchased 50,000 bushels of Canadian wheat.

Following factors have tended to lower price: New wheat prospects in Argentine continue favorable—Corn harvest in Rumania is now in full swing—A large wheat acreage is being seeded in the United Kingdom—The potato crop is said to be large in most countries of Europe this year.

Why the Red Cross is in urgent need of funds

Here are a few tasks the Canadian Red Cross must tackle at once:

- 1 At the request of the British Red Cross, it has undertaken to provide 10,000 parcels of food each week from Canada for British prisoners of war in Germany. Canadians can thus help to lessen the strain on Britain's food supplies.
- 2 The Canadian Red Cross will provide, equip and co-operate with the Department of National Defence in maintaining a number of convalescent hospitals in various parts of Canada for use by Canadian soldiers, here and from overseas, who are sick or wounded.
- 3 The Canadian Red Cross will help to supply clothing and other necessities to the more than 100,000 evacuee children in Britain, and the 100,000 refugees from invaded countries who have sought shelter under the Union Jack. Many articles of relief clothing have been supplied, but another half million articles will be needed from Canadian Red Cross workrooms.
- 4 The Canadian Red Cross is sending an increasing flow of supplies for the alleviation of civilian suffering caused by enemy bombing of Britain.
- 5 As Canada's own armed forces grow, on land, on sea and in the air, the need for Red Cross services increases.
- 6 The Red Cross must be ready and fully equipped to meet any emergency at the moment it arises.

These are tasks you must not leave undone. Support the Red Cross with all your heart.

IMPERIAL OIL HAVE NEW KEROSENE

Reporting recently on the petroleum industry, the Alberta Royal Commission has this to say: "In our view, there could have been no support for the present day range of the activities of the industry, and of the other industries depending upon it, without the dynamic technology which has been developed in every branch of the oil business through the untold expenditure of money by companies who were in a financial position to make large expenditures in support of scientific endeavor."

Imperial Oil Limited, always a leader in petroleum research, announces in this issue of this paper a notable improvement in kerosene following laboratory research and plant improvement. The new kerosene now being sold by Imperial dealers and agents is branded Imperial Essolite Kerosene. Never before, it is said, has a kerosene of this high incubator quality been made available at the price of regular kerosene. Essolite Kerosene is said to give improved performance in every use to which kerosene is put.

Poultrymen Will Convene Soon

During the week commencing November 25, Alberta poultrymen, including all who possess 50 birds or more, will be asked to decide whether they wish to market their eggs through a marketing board controlled by themselves, it was announced by Hon. E. C. Manning this week. Poultrymen were requested to watch for the advertised dates of meetings in their districts and to attend them. Poultrymen will outline their own proposals at these meetings, after which a vote will be taken. It was stressed later in the week by W. C. Traves, Provincial Poultry Commissioner, that both Dominion and British Food Ministry officials desire a co-ordinated plan of marketing and shipping eggs.

Edmonton & District Raise The Dough

Edmonton, England, is in possession of $25,000 which Edmonton Alberta raised to help buy a Spitfire fighter plane. The Alberta fund is well over the top, and immediately the cost of the plane was received the necessary credits were called to the London Nameake of Alberta's capital. The surplus will go toward buying a second Spitfire. Much help from country districts was received by the civic workers who handled the campaign.

Beet Growers Get Payment On Crop

One thousand beet grower of Southern Alberta will receive an initial payment of $1,250,000 for their 1940 crop on November 6. This is the largest initial payment yet made, and it will be on account of beets delivered before October 19. With a record average yield of 13 tons an acre, a total yield of 320,000 tons was reaped from 23,000 acres.

NO NEED FOR ALARM

Many business people, it seems, are still alarmed because of a belief some hold that prairie farmers will be unable to sell sufficient of their crops this year to receive even a reasonable amount of money before winter sets in. This alarm, it is said, is having the effect of making some business men hesitate about giving farmers the usual amount of season's credit.

The facts are that farmers have already delivered to elevators from August 1st to Oct. 19, 190 million bushels of wheat, and that 85 million of this was delivered during the 30 days from September 19 to Oct. 19th. Should these deliveries continue, therefore, at this same rate, then farmers would have delivered and sold by December 1st, to country elevators, around 300 million bushels.

Some authorities confidentially believe that farmers will at least have delivered to country elevators by December 1st, an average of 10 bushels to the acre. This would come to approximately 280 million bushels, which should bring to farmers the total sum of $140,000,000 cash by December 1st. As it will be seen from the table below, this is more money than our farmers of the West, as a group, have received for wheat by December 1st in any year in the past five years, with the exception of last year.

This large sum of $140,000,000 for wheat alone, without counting the cash received for coarse grains, livestock, and livestock products, should in itself warrant a fair amount of credit. But it is to be remembered that even after this is all sold the farmers will still have almost 200 million bushels more wheat in hand to be delivered and sold for cash to elevators between December 1st and August 1st next. All in all, then, it would appear that the prairie farmers' credit should be as good now as it has been for many past years, and better than it has been for several years. Cash Received By Prairie Farmers from Sale of Wheat Alone from August 1st to December 1st
